Unfinished business

The Mayor laid before the Council the following message of the Mayor.

Austin, Texas, January 19, 1936

To the City Council

Mayors Veto

Watson Claim

I return herewith, without my approval an ordinance entitled "an ordinance" appropriating the sum of one thousand and seventy five dollars for the purpose of making part payment to Capt A. D. Watson, for making plans, specifications, etc. on New City Hall, for the reason that on the 20th day of Sept 1905, the Council, by unanimous vote, passed the following resolution

"Be it resolved by the City Council of the City of Austin that the plans and specifications as prepared by A. D. Watson, Architect, for the New City Hall of the City of Austin, be, and the same are hereby adopted by the City Council of the City of Austin, as the plans and specifications of the New City Hall to be erected when the Council is ready to take up the same.

Be it further resolved by the City Council of the City of Austin, that no liability for said plans, on the part of the City, shall be incurred until contract is let and building completed."

It will be seen that the Council specifically disclaims any liability to Capt Watson by reason of the adoption of his plans, until a contract to build a new City Hall is let, and the building completed.

It is this resolution in effect, the amount appropriated by this ordinance cannot legally be paid Respectfully

W. D. Jackson Mayor

To the Council

Alderman Brown moved to reconsider the vote on which the ordinance appropriating the sum of one thousand and seventy five dollars for the purpose of making part payment to A. D. Watson for plans and specifications for the New City Hall, was passed, which motion prevailed.
A motion was then made to pass the same, which motion prevailed, the bill was then passed, which motion was in accord with the resolution.
